

What we see in nature, we can also see in ourselves.

Do we ever realize for longer than 4 hours that life is nothing more than a cyclical event complete with a defined beginning and end.

The main thing that we as humans lack the knowledge of
is the fact that the only immeasurable thing in our lives
is the amount of time which the cycle will run until the program becomes obsolete and is replaced,
renewed,
or expired.
